STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The tract where this house is built upon consists of parts of the Land of Promise and Eightrapp. Both of these parcels were owned by the Giles family at one time before they were sold to the Govers during the last quarter of the Eighteenth Century. The house itself dates from the middle of the last century, and was most likely built by Major William B. Stephenson (He appears as the resident on the 1878 Martenet map), as he was the first landowner that possessed a decent portion of the present tract.
